

The Depot is an 1880's train depot that was formerly located in the village of Brice, Ohio and has been transformed into a beautiful high-tech facility. This unique facility can accommodate people in classroom, conference and open settings for a private party.

The ceiling of the The Depot is original red pine bead board; the floor is hand-hewn hickory. The inside walls came from a 150 year old Quaker "meeting room" and the slate for the roof was originally on a 200 year old barn. The tables were handcrafted in Butler, Ohio using various hardwoods, and the very comfortable tapestry seat chairs were specially designed for functionality and complementary style. Antique tables, benches and train memorabilia add to the unique feel and attraction of The Depot.

The Depot is also home to the following restored historic rail treasures:

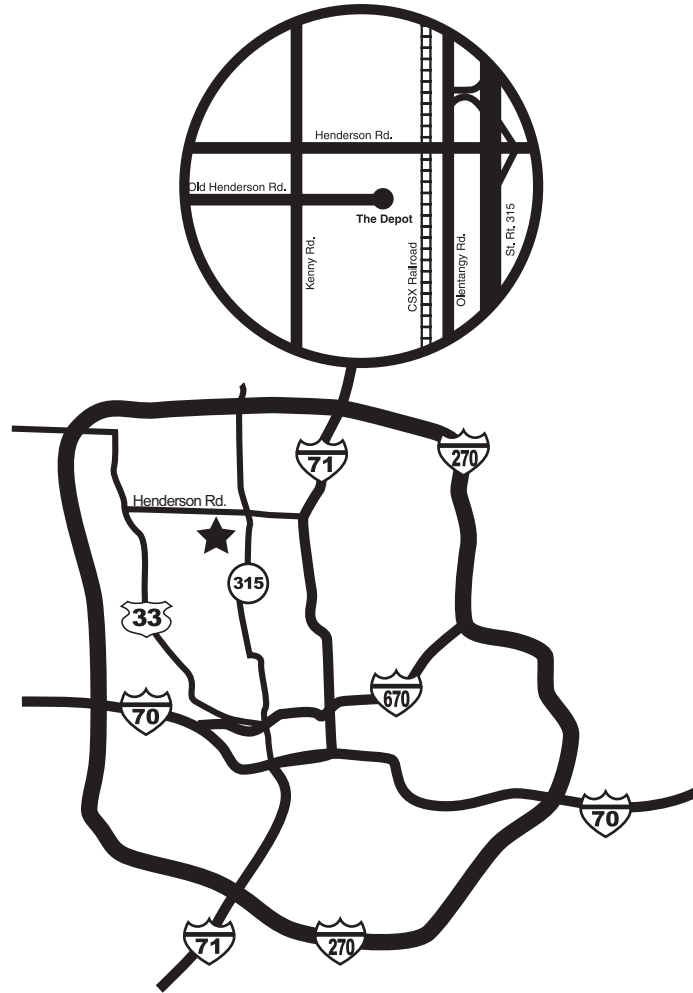

- 1909 Central Vermont Caboose
- 1951 Great Northern Ranch Dining Car
- 1926 Vulcan Steam Locomotive
- 1886 Ringling Brother's Executive Private Car (on loan from the Ohio Rail Museum)

Testimonials

"The Depot was a perfect place to have an off-site meeting. It's close to the city and the facility was excellent. The staff was very hospitable and attended to our every need."

- Jane Abell, Owner & Chief Operating Officer, Donatos Pizza

"The Depot is one of the most interesting and truly unique meeting locations in Central Ohio. The room layout is perfect for 20 to 25 people (and more), and the staff is tremendously accommodating to all your requests. The built in projection capabilities and other A/V needs are included in the price of the room, as well as beverages, making it a great value and hassle free. It is a great place to "think outside the boxcar."

*-Kenneth A. Peters, President,
Mettler-Toledo, Inc*

"Thank you for all your help in making our wedding a fine event and a new beginning."

-Larry & Ruth Budd
